ABOUT

The Valhalla was born from a gap in the market, a realization that the industry lacked a true partner for creatives – a company that not only understood the raw vision of the talent but also embraced and accentuated it. Our founders, seasoned creatives themselves, identified the need for a management and entertainment company that could bridge the gap between raw artistic vision and a strategic, corporate approach.

As a full-service management & entertainment company, we embark on a mission to elevate the industry standard & redefine excellence. Our commitment is unwavering, & our passion is palpable, making us the go-to partner for comprehensive solutions & unparalleled experiences.

DIBI

Gcinuhlanga Dibi, known popularly as Dibi, emerges as a multifaceted force in the entertainment realm, with a core focus on his prowess as a rapper and musician. Hailing from Port Elizabeth, Dibi's journey as an entertainer began in his formative years, where he honed his skills in battle-rapping with crews, showcasing a natural talent for storytelling through music.

As the Head Writer, Director, Executive Producer, and co-owner of Outré Studios, he has immersed himself in various aspects of the entertainment industry, traversing music, television, and film with adeptness. Dibi's philosophy centres on the art of storytelling, believing it to be the essence of any creative endeavour, irrespective of its medium.

Dibi's ascent within the rap scene is marked by his captivating lyricism and inventive flows, capturing the attention of audiences with his compelling narratives. With an imminent joint album release alongside Knife Beatz, Dibi is poised to showcase his musical prowess on a grand scale.

KnifeBeatz

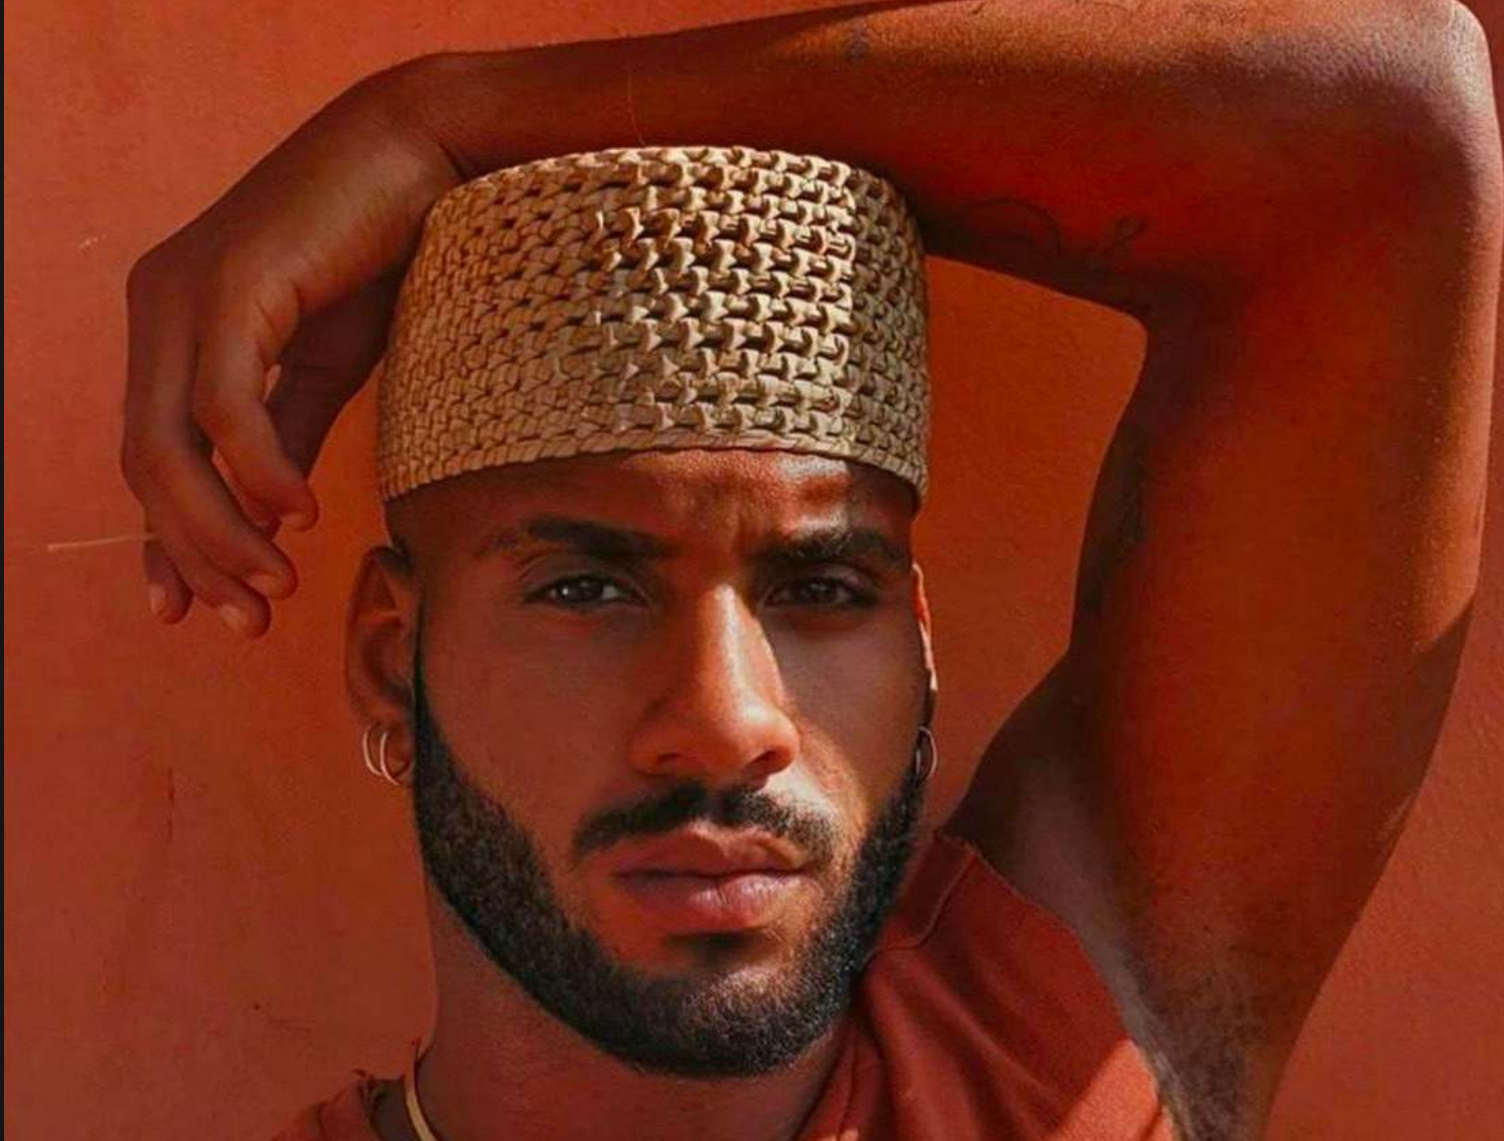

KnifeBeatz is a distinguished Gold-selling music producer and sound engineer. Renowned for his innovative and captivating sounds, KnifeBeatz has solidified his presence as a formidable force in the music industry. Throughout his illustrious career, KnifeBeatz has collaborated with a plethora of award-winning artists. His unparalleled ability to craft unique and compelling beats has earned him a sterling reputation as one of the most sought-after producers in the industry.

KnifeBeatz's talents extend beyond individual collaborations. He recently lent his expertise to the production of the Netflix South African TV show, Blood and Water. His music production prowess played a pivotal role in bringing the show to life, showcasing his versatility and adaptability.

In addition to his work with top-tier artists, KnifeBeatz has forged partnerships with prominent brands like Sportscene Studio, powered by Reebok. Notably, he co-created a hit record with Emtee and Lolli Native, demonstrating his ability to seamlessly blend diverse genres of music, making him a sought-after producer in both commercial and artistic realms.

As he gears up for the release of his official debut single in collaboration album with Dibi, the anticipation is palpable. His unwavering dedication to his craft and relentless pursuit of innovation position him as a force to be reckoned with in the years to come.

Raphael XZVR

Raphael XZVR, is a Soul and Bossa Nova singer, and a prolific songwriter renowned for his captivating melodies and poignant lyrics. Hailing from the rich cultural landscape of Angola, Raphael's musical journey began at the tender age of 9 when he discovered his profound love for singing.

Since 2015, Raphael has embraced music as his profession, delving deep into the realm of performance, music releases, and media training. With a natural gift for storytelling through song, he effortlessly weaves together elements of Soul and Bossa Nova, creating a unique and enchanting musical tapestry.

Drawing inspiration from his Angolan roots, Raphael's sound has evolved over the years, gravitating towards the intricate rhythms and expressive melodies of Jazz. It is through this exploration that he has coined his signature style, which he affectionately refers to as "Afro Latino Jazz."

With each performance, Raphael XZVR invites listeners on a transcendent journey, where the soulful melodies and heartfelt lyrics create an unforgettable experience. As a true visionary in the world of music, Raphael continues to captivate audiences with his boundless creativity and unwavering passion for storytelling through song.

Mojo Qai

Mojo Qai, formerly known as Ozone, traces its roots back to the fusion of two bands, Cafè Wha? and Jive Chronicles, originating from the vibrant music scene of White River, Mpumalanga. Established in 2011 at the Casterbridge Music Development Academy (CMDA), Mojo Qai embarked on a journey that would see them grace stages across South Africa and collaborate with renowned artists from around the world.

From their inception, Mojo Qai captured the attention of music enthusiasts, swiftly ascending the ranks to share stages with some of South Africa's most prominent acts. Opening for the likes of Mango Groove, Freshly Ground, and Goldfish, they quickly established themselves as a force to be reckoned with in the local music scene. Noteworthy performances include supporting UB40 during their visit to the Mbombela Stadium in 2011 and sharing the stage with The Parlotones, Vusi Mahlasela, and Prime Circle at the Route 40 Music Festival in 2013.

Mojo Qai's journey transcended borders when they participated in Carnegie Hall's Musical Exchange Programme, collaborating with Carl Restivo, a distinguished musician from the USA, during the Route 40 Music Festival. This international exposure not only enriched their musical repertoire but also solidified their presence on the global stage.

In 2015, Mojo Qai secured a coveted residency at Hard Rock Cafe Sandton, serving as the venue's resident band. Their electrifying performances, both scheduled and impromptu, captivated audiences and cemented their status as one of the most sought-after acts in the industry. Whether performing monthly gigs or supporting international bookings, Mojo Qai's presence at Hard Rock Cafe was synonymous with excellence.

As Mojo Qai embarks on a new chapter in their musical odyssey, their commitment to pushing boundaries and captivating audiences remains stronger than ever. With a fusion of funk, rock, and rap, they defy genre limitations, delivering performances that resonate with audiences far and wide. With their sights set on new horizons, Mojo Qai invites you to join them on a journey where the music never stops, and the mojo never fades.

Victor Malaza

Born and raised amidst the vibrant rhythms of Nelspruit, Mpumalanga, Victor Malaza emerged as a dynamic force in the South African music scene. From a young age, Victor was drawn to the pulsating beats of House and Hip-Hop music. At the age of 14, he embarked on his musical odyssey as a DJ, swiftly captivating audiences with his infectious energy.

In 2009, Victor co-founded the acclaimed Hip-Hop duo "Calamity" alongside his musical comrade, Nipho "Bazz" Jiyane. Together, they navigated the tumultuous waters of the music scene, from humble beginnings to sharing the stage with global icons like Rick Ross in front of 60,000 fervent fans in their hometown.

His latest single, "Yo Vic," serves as the vanguard of his highly anticipated return to music after a 7-year hiatus, offering a tantalizing glimpse into his boundless creativity and artistic evolution.

As Victor's musical odyssey unfolds, his journey is a testament to the transformative power of music and the unwavering spirit of a true artist. With each performance, he invites audiences to join him on a transcendent voyage, where the rhythm of the Beast from the East reigns supreme, and the possibilities are limitless. Indeed, for Victor Malaza, the story has only just begun.
